- c. Defendants may respond to Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction and any supplemental briefing with a brief not to exceed thirty (30) pages (not including whatever record materials Defendants choose to submit) within thirty (30) days after the completion of discovery or the service of any supplemental brief filed by Plaintiff, whichever is later.
- d. The Court understands that the parties and their counsel have agreed to participate in an informal conference on January 20, 2016, in an effort to resolve this matter. In the event the parties' efforts to resolve the matter during their conference on January 20, 2016, are unsuccessful, then the parties and the third-parties jointly represented by the parties' counsel shall (i) complete their document productions, including the review and production of materials provided by Protek in accordance with the Forensic Protocol [D.E. 34 Ex. 1], on or before January 26, 2016, and (ii) make available for deposition the witnesses requested to date prior to the February 19, 2016, deadline.

2. Except insofar as modified by this Order, the Scheduling Order shall remain in effect and in force in all respects.
